

Note explaining the mode of citation and how to refer to the judgments and decisions of the Court (old and new)

From 1 November 1998, the Reports of Judgments and Decisions of the European Court of Human Rights contain a selection of judgments delivered and decisions adopted after the entry into force of Protocol No. 11 to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms. All judgments and decisions of the Court (with the exception of decisions taken by committees of three judges pursuant to Article 28 of the Convention), including those not published in this series, are available in the Court's case-law database (HUDOC) which is accessible via the Court's website (<http://www.echr.coe.int>).

Note on citation

The form of citation for judgments and decisions published in this series from 1 November 1998 follows the pattern: name of case (in italics), application number, paragraph number (for judgments), abbreviation of the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR), year and number of volume.

In the absence of any indication to the contrary the cited text is a judgment on the merits delivered by a Chamber of the Court. Any variation from that is added in brackets after the name of the case: “(dec.)” for a decision on admissibility, “(preliminary objections)” for a judgment concerning only preliminary objections, “(just satisfaction)” for a judgment concerning only just satisfaction, “(revision)” for a judgment concerning revision, “(interpretation)” for a judgment concerning interpretation, “(striking out)” for a judgment striking the case out, or “(friendly settlement)” for a judgment concerning a friendly settlement. “[GC]” is added if the judgment or decision has been given by the Grand Chamber of the Court.

APPENDIX

MEMORANDUM ON CITATION OF JUDGMENTS AND DECISIONS

With a view to simplifying and harmonising citation, the Publications Committee has decided that the names of judgments and decisions of the old Court and the names of decisions of the Commission should appear in italics and the mode of citation has been changed slightly.
