

Requesting an interview

The European Court of Human Rights does not have an official spokesperson, but the President, judges and senior figures from the Registry sometimes give interviews.

The Press Unit of the Court deals with organising such interviews.

Before sending interview requests, please bear in mind the following:

- Neither judges nor the press unit can advise or comment on ongoing or potential cases as this could be seen as prejudicial
- Please tell us which media you represent and whether you are television, radio or written media
- Interviews can usually last a maximum of one hour
- Specify the language/s used
- provide the topic and purpose of the interview
- if possible, send questions in writing
